HONOLULU COLLEGE

EDITOR MAKES GOOD

The Chronicle has the following dispatch:

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 4.—Editor Ernest N. Smith of the Sequoia, who recently discussed in a very plain manner the drinking problem at Stanford and charged the authorities with the blame for much of the unpleasant notoriety which has come to Stanford of late, was summoned before the student affairs committee last evening and questioned as to his motives and authority for the statements in the last issue of his magazine.

After a session which extended well into the night, the committee postponed action until this afternoon, when a second meeting resulted in Smith's case being dropped. Professor Clark refused to discuss the matter. The chief point upon which Smith was cross-examined was as to his authority for the statement that his editorial represented student-body opinion.
There was no intimation that the editors were one-sided or malicious.

The Call has the following:

4.—The case of Ernest N. Smith of Honolulu, editor of the Stanford Sequoia, who, in the editorial columns of the issue of last week, dealt with the drinking problem here and criticized freely students and faculty alike, was brought before the student affairs committee this afternoon, and after a discussion lasting several hours was dismissed.

The fact that the college journalist was hailed before the committee came as a surprise to the majority of the undergraduates.

HERE AT HOME

Honolulu Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Backache Kidney Pills so far above competitors.
When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt.

Mrs. N. Joseph living at the corner of Liliha and King streets, Honolulu, states as follows: "I was troubled for seven months with a lame back, and also suffered from occasional attacks of chills. These various complaints made my condition by no means a happy one, so that I much desired some remedy which would bring relief.
This I found in Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, some of which I obtained at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. I am pleased to say that they gave me not merely temporary but permanent relief and I have not the least hesitancy therefore in recommending Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. They are a good kidney medicine."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers at 50 cents per box (six boxes $2.50). Mailed by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., Honolulu, lands.

THAT PHANTOM FLEET
OFF MAKUA COAST

WASHINGTON, March 1, [Special to Chicago Tribune].—The battleship fleet reported as having been seen off the north end of Oahu, one of the Hawaiian Islands, is regarded here as the outcome of an overactive imagination or the effect of a mirage on some over-suspicious person.

The first rumor regarding the fleet was sent out from Honolulu late last night, saying that four unknown war vessels were cruising in the waters near the islands.

The capital of the archipelago heard rumors supposedly on good authority, that the warships were stripped for action and had assumed threatening tactics.

The city's people, believing it might be the first demonstration of hostility by an enemy, became alarmed, and when the reports reached full circulation there was almost a panic in some portions of the city.

The army authorities early began an investigation and as nothing authoritative could be learned of their presence, it was decided they were the outcome of a reflection in the skies or some low lying clouds.

Many unmusical children that are supposedly tone deaf learn rhythm and time, and finally become quite musical by being taught to dance. One child catches the rhythm of the steps when dancing with another, and this is one more reason why every child should be taught the art as early as possible.

Commercial News

By Daniel Logan.

Another substantial advance has taken place in the sugar market. From 3.89 cents a pound, $77.80 a ton, 96 degree test centrifugals have gone to 4.05 cents a pound, $81 a ton, while the price of European beets has risen from 10s. 3d. to 10s. 8 1/2d. the long cwt., or an increase of parity from $83.20 to $85 a ton.

Without a large line of business there are some features of the stock market which are noteworthy. Ewa has risen from 24 to 25. Oahu is selling at 24 1/2. It is said that Oahu will give Ewa a run for tonnage, having so far largely overrun all the manager's estimates. Every field is yielding better than expected. Waialua is also doing splendid work. The juice stands high and the expectation is that the crop will overrun the estimate of 28,000 tons.
While Oahu will get 32,000, Waialua will get nearly the same.

A sale of Honoum has been made at 130 and no more stock is offering at that price. Its next quotation will probably be 135.

Stockholders of Kihai will trade off their holdings on July 1 at the rate of $10 a share.

Hawaiian Pineapple Co., lately listed on 'change, par value 20, is 22 bid with no sellers.

It is said that shares in Honolulu Plantation Co., the only one refining its crop, have been offered here at 16 (par value 20) with no takers.

Olaa is at 3 1/4 and McBryde at 3 1/2. Bonds are weak. Pacific Sugar Mill bonds (new) have sold at par to the amount of $20,000 or $25,000. Waimanalo stock is paying 2 1/2 per cent monthly right along notwithstanding the recent fire.

Standard Telephone Co. had a meeting yesterday but adjourned without doing any business. It is reported that the control of the stock of this undeveloped enterprise has again changed hands.

DIVIDENDS.

Future dividends, expected about April, are forecast for Onomea, Honoum and Pepeekeo, all one per cent monthly. Waialua should pay three per cent or more for this year, having had a very small debt the first of the year.

Hawaiian Agricultural Co. paid off $150,000 of its notes the early part of the year and is still paying one per cent a month with prospects of a large crop.

Dividends have been declared as follows the past week: Pauhanu, 15 cents a share; Hawaiian Sugar Co., 1 1/2 per cent; Oahu Sugar Co., 1 per cent; O. R.
& L. Co., 3/4 per cent.

STOCK EXCHANGE SALES.

Sales of the week recorded by the Honolulu Stock & Bond Exchange have been as follows: Oahu Sugar Co. ($20), 40, 10, 40 at 24, 30, 25, 165 at 24 1/2; Ewa ($20), 10 at 24 1/2, 60 at 24 1/2, 5 at 24 1/2, 145 at 24 1/2, 5 at 24 1/2; H. C. & S. Co. ($100), 75 (S. P.) at 79 1/2, 25, 5 at 80; O. R. & L. Co. ($100), 70 at 92 1/2; Olaa ($20), 100 at 3 1/2; McBryde ($20), 25 at 3 1/2; Honoum ($100), 50 at 130; Waialua 5's, $11,000, $500 at 93 1/2, $500 at 92 1/2; Pioneer 6's, $1000 at 102.

SOME PUBLIC MATTERS.

F. P. Sargent, Commissioner of Immigration, has written to H. P. Wood, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and the Hawaii Promotion Committee, suggesting that the mass of unemployed people on the mainland should form a source of increase of the industrial population of this Territory which might by proper means be developed. Mentioning the large expenditure incurred by the local Board of Immigration in bringing Portuguese and Spaniards into the islands last year, whereby "several shiploads of desirable immigrants" were secured, Mr. Sargent says: "Now, it is my belief that if something of the same kind could be done with reference to the mainland of the United States, the board would be able to get an excellent class of people, of the nationalities most desired, who would be willing to cast their lot with the new Territory, and become part of its permanent population, and people, at the same time, who had been a sufficient length of time in the United States to have become somewhat imbued with American ideas, so that on going to Hawaii they would become very progressive citizens."

In pursuance of orders received early in the week by Captain Humphrey, U. S. Depot Quartermaster here, to make preparations for duplicating the buildings on Fort Shafter reservation, Kahauiki, Honolulu, doubling the size of the post, bids for that work, involving an expenditure of about $300,000, will be advertised for in Honolulu and San Francisco in two months or so hence.

Captain Otwell, U. S. Engineer, will begin this week the work of constructing a wharf at Halawa, Pearl Harbor, at a cost of $10,000, for Army purposes.

On April 8 Captain Otwell will give a public hearing at Kahului, Maui, on the question of establishing harbor lines at that port. Arguments submitted in writing will be laid before the Secretary of War.

A joint cablegram from the commercial bodies has been sent to Washington to urge the passage of the bill permitting the carrying of passengers in foreign vessels between Hawaii and the Pacific Coast for a number of years or pending further Congressional action.

The Knudsen brothers of Kauai have withdrawn their offer to purchase the Manna lands.

REAL ESTATE AND GENERAL.

No sales of real estate at auction are to report. Deeds recorded include the following: M. R. da Silva and wife to Anthony Loftus, 2 68-1000 acres land, corner Pauoa road and Fort street, Honolulu, $2250; Kathleen Murphy and husband (A. E.) to Manuel F. Peter, property at Kalihi, $1500; Ida W.
Waterhouse et al. to J. Alfred Magoon, 8 lots at Pearl City, $1200; Joseph K.
Clark to Luisa da G. Marcellino, six lots in Kapahulu tract, Honolulu, $1095.

On Thursday an event of interisland commerce occurred in the arrival from San Francisco of the new steamer Mauna Kea after a passage of eight days. She was built especially for the route between Honolulu and Hilo, whereon the iron steamer Kinohiwa has run for a quarter of a century, and is the largest and fastest vessel in the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co.'s fleet. The Mauna Kea will be greatly appreciated by tourists visiting the Volcano.

The transport Thomas kept up wireless communication with San Francisco until more than 1300 miles out from that port.

Ocean steam arrivals for the week have been the Sherman from Manila, the Kasato Maru from Callao, the America Maru from San Francisco, the Thomas from San Francisco, the Nippon Maru from Yokohama, the Virginian and the Nebraska from San Francisco. Departures have been the America Maru for Yokohama, the Sherman for San Francisco, the Alameda for San Francisco, the Iroquois for Midway, the Thomas for Manila and the Nippon Maru for San Francisco.

HARD TIMES IN FRISCO
MAKES STOWAWAYS

There are eight stowaways on the transport Thomas who are to be put ashore here when the vessel leaves this forenoon. Chief of Detectives Taylor went down to the vessel yesterday to look them over. They seemed a much better class of men than are frequently found among stowaways.

Each of them claimed to have an occupation of some kind. One of them said he had formerly worked here for T. B. Walker, the contractor. Two of them claimed to be bricklayers, one a stone mason, one an oiler, and two of them carpenters. One of them said he was trying to get to Australia with his wife and two children. All of them claimed that they left San Francisco because of the hard times there and the inability of anyone not a member of the union getting employment.

Newspaper men were to be excluded from a famous trial. "That's good," one of them remarked. "I hate to be hampered by facts in writing up a case of this kind."

$10,000 WHARF FOR
PEARL HARBOR POST

Captain Otwell, United States Engineer, in charge of all government engineering work in this Territory, will cause to be erected a substantial wharf at Pearl Harbor, independent of whether or not Congress makes an appropriation for the harbor.

A post is likely to be established at Pearl Harbor before long, and a wharf will be needed for the landing of supplies and material. Work will be started on preliminary construction next week and the mud will be thrown out preparatory to making a dock. The wharf will be built at Halawa and will cost about $10,000.

BEWARE OF FREQUENT COLDS.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease.

A MANILA CLOTHES-LINE NEARLY ABDUCTS A HOUSE

A green, untanned manila clothesline nearly pulled a house over yesterday.

Yes, that's exactly what is meant.

It happened at Kaimuki, where a citizen has recently erected a 14x14 house, constructed of second-hand tongue and groove lumber by Japanese labor.

The man of the house, wishing to economize and at the same time to furnish his wife with some healthful exercise, told his better half that he would allow her to do the washing for a spell, and in furtherance of his program purchased a couple of stout manila clothes-lines, which he fastened at one end to his house and at the other to the fence of a neighbor's yard.

On Saturday night his wife woke him up and called his attention to the fact that there was a hole in the side of the house through which the rain was beating in. He said that he'd attend to it in the morning, and went to sleep again.

A little later he was awakened by rain in his face, and was startled to notice that the former tiny crack in the boards had increased to a couple of inches in width and seemed to be getting wider all the time.

Fearing a subsidence of the foundation of the house, he jumped out of bed and went into the rain with a lantern to investigate.

For some time he was at a loss to understand what had happened. There before his very eyes the side of the house was bulging out and describing a parabola.

Then the sad truth of the matter dawned on him. The clothes-line, drenched by the rain, had shrunk, and something had to give, and it had not been the staunch manila ropes which had remained true to the trust reposed in them.

With consummate presence of mind the man seized a kila and with one slash severed the faithful ropes, the side of the house resuming its normal position with a sigh as soon as the cruel steel had parted the strands.

A few well-directed blows with a sledge-hammer made everything tight and the man returned to bed to resume his disturbed repose.

In future the owner of the house will use wire clothes-lines and will see to it that they are thoroughly shrunk before they are made fast.

FROG MAGNETS MAY BRAND THEIR STOCK

The rain is working havoc in the Kalihi frog-ponds and spreading dire consternation among the raisers of the amphibians in the aforementioned suburb.

Every taro-patch out Kalihi way is a frogery and the greenbacks with wonderful instinct seem to know the confines of their own particular domain and respect them accordingly.

Came the big rain and an attendant overflowing of the taro-patches. When the water overflowed the frogs went with it. Such a mixup was surely never seen in the history of the local frog industry. Everybody's frogs were in somebody else's preserves and the placid creatures bellowed in sorrow and perplexity and refused to be comforted.

It is reported on good authority that the Kalihi frog magnets will get together some time this week for the purpose of considering a suggestion that each owner brand his frogs with some mark which will make identification possible in emergencies like the present.

DRESS SUITS AND SHIRTS.

Among the freight shipments aboard the steamer Claudine when she pulled out for Maui and Hawaii yesterday afternoon were a number of suit cases, the tags on them bearing the names of the various members of the Governor's party now touring Maui. They were all addressed to Wailuku, and contained dress suits, boiled shirts, dancing pumps and the other things that go to make up glad rags. The Wailukites have planned a big reception in honor of Governor Frear and his party, to take place on Monday night, and hence the wirelessness from that island with hurry-up messages for something to wear. Khaki leggings and smoreros made up the wardrobes, for the most part of the members of the party when they sailed from here.

PEACE DISTURBER'S REVENGE.

Wahine Hookano took a deep revenge on the police after she had been run in on Saturday night for disturbing the peace around her home near the corner of Queen and Richards streets. "If you lock me up I will raise my voice all night," she announced to the receiving clerk at the station, or words to that effect. These were not her exact words, because it was something besides her voice that she threatened to raise. True to her promise she howled lustily from eleven o'clock until daylight yesterday morning, driving away from the eyes of all but the drunkard of the other prisoners. Then, when the rest got up after a sleepless night, Wahine settled down and slumbered.
